AN UGLY CUSTOMER .- Captain Malloy, of bark Osceola 3d, of New Bedford, in a letter to Jacob B. Hadley, Esq., agent, gives a graphic account of an encounter with a whale on the 16th of December last. We quote as

"About 300 miles N. W. from St. Nicholas, we saw whales close to the ship, lowered the boats as soon as possible, and soon the second mate struck a large whale. In a few minutes, the third mate struck and got stove. The whale then went to the second mate and knockmate and his crew to the ship as quick as possible, as I saw the whale was intending mischief. In the meantime, the whale was at work on the starboard boat, and he soon made a bad boat of her. After getting all hands on board, the first and second mates, being anxious to try him again, went off, but didn't get a chance to kill him. In fact, they had as much as they could do to keep clear of him; and seeing that he was a dangerous customer, I called the boats on board. Not liking the idea of being outdone by a whale, I concluded to go at him with the ship; got ready and made for him. Getting near, he turned and came for peared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the us, striking the snip on her port bow with his cause of so great a change, she plainly told them jaw, his head coming in contact with the cut- that she used the Circassian Balm, and con- in design, of dimensions to suit any family, and water, knocking it off and tearing off considerable. us, striking the ship on her port bow with his cause of so great a change, she plainly told them water, knocking it off and tearing off considerable sidered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's unquestionably surpassing in their design all copper and sheathing. I sent a boat off to make the wreck of the starboard boat secure to the line, to act as a drag, and went after the waist boat, now five miles to the leeward. After getting her on board (it being then dark) I worked to the windward all night, and the next morning saw him again with the wreck of the boat still fast to him .manned, and went at him. After a hard tussle, we got him under care of friends, and he was very poor. I got 115 barrels out of him; had he been fat he would have made 150 barrrels easy. His length was 68 feet;

STROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED At the wonderful revelations made by the Great Astrologist, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursne, and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament-the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration-from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the gist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1.
